

HASKELL
VINEYARDS

I am what I drink

"Drinking good wine with good food in good company is one of life's most civilised pleasures," says Michael Broadbent, the 90-year-old British wine critic and writer. And we couldn't agree more,

The Tasting Room offers...

Even Neuroscientists have a say about wine tasting:

"From the first sight of the wine bottle to manipulating the wine in your mouth and then swallowing it, there is a 'tremendous range of sensory, motor and central brain systems involved in a wine tasting', says Yale neuroscientist Gordon Shepherd.

Join us for a tasting and make use of our deal of the Season:
